

Rockingham Community College

Distance Learning: Out of State Student Policy

As a member of the North Carolina Community College System, Rockingham Community College works with the Southern Regional Education Board and individual states to ensure that this institution is authorized to serve students in other states. Rockingham Community College is working to achieve compliance to the U.S. Department of Education State Authorization Requirements as established in HEOA 600.9(c). This section states the following:

If an institution is offering postsecondary education through distance or correspondence education to students in a State in which it is not physically located or in which it is otherwise subject to State jurisdiction as determined by the State, the institution must meet any State requirements for it to be legally offering postsecondary distance or correspondence education in that State. An institution must be able to document to the Secretary [of Education] the State's approval upon request. (Authority: 20 U.S.C. 1001 and 1002).

The states in which the college is authorized through the SREB electronic campus to serve students include those listed below.

Alabama	Arkansas	California	Delaware	Florida	Georgia	Idaho
Kentucky	Louisiana	Maryland	Michigan	Mississippi	New York	North Carolina
Oklahoma	South Carolina	Tennessee	Texas	Virginia	West Virginia	Wisconsin

If you reside in a state not on this list, you are not eligible to register for classes at RCC at this time. If you have questions, please contact the office of Academic Affairs at 336.342.4261.
